Bali Bird Park - Ubud Monkey Forest Gunung Kawi

(9 hours depending on traffic and time spent in each place)

Bali Bird Park is the first Bali attraction to visit and enjoy that consists of hundreds of bird species from all over the world, plus the chance to see a live bird show. Next is Batuan where you can visit a traditional Balinese house compound and family. After that we drive to Ubud to visit the Monkey Forest and to eat some local Balinese food for lunch. (Crispy duck and roasted pig) The tour ends in Gunung Kawi, the Kingdom Artifact Heritage of Bali with Tirta Empul, the holy water spring temple, then back to Sahaja Sawah Resort.

Bali Bird Park Divided into geographical regions starting with Africa and the Americas, and then southeast Asian areas (Borneo, Sumatra, Java, Bali, Nusa Tenggara). Bali Bird Park is a fascinating Bali attraction of exotic sights and sounds.

Batuan Village This is a unique chance to experience the traditional culture and way of life in Bali. Batuan village is famous for the local Bali art & paintings.

Ubud & Monkey Forest The city of Ubud is without any doubt the art center of Bali. Ubud is very famous for its paintings and artists. Bali, Ubud tourism focuses on culture, yoga and nature. In a small rainforest you will find Ubud Monkey Forest, where several groups of monkeys (approximately 340 monkeys) and other tropical animals live.

Gunung Kawi The Kingdom Artefact Heritage of Bali with Tirta Empul, the holy water spring temple. The Gunung Kawi has an interesting history. Inscriptions over each Candi approximate the date of construction to be in the 11th C. It is believed that each temple served as a memorial to a deified royalty principally because they are shaped like the burial towers, or Candi's.

Sahaya Sawah

Bali Butterfly Park, Batu Karu Jatiluwi and Tanah Lot

(8 hours/ depending traffic and time spent in each place)

Very impressive Bali tour with very beautiful Butterflies in the Bali Butterfly Park, the rainforest temple at Batukaru, Bali panorama view in the area of Jatiluwi with the widest and probably best rice terraces in Bali, and finally we'll visit the famous Tanah Lot Temple.

Bali Butterfly Park First stop will be at the Bali Butterfly Park. A fun adventure for the whole family. Here you can find the most famous Butterflies of various kinds of species from all over Indonesia.

Rainforest Temple At Batukaru Luhur Batukaru Temple is one of Bali's key directional temples and a site of pilgrimage for Hindu Balinese. Bali temples have become very popular and visited by a lot of tourists, but Luhur Batukaru Temple is harder to get to and much quieter. Less people trying to sell you something on the approach etc. It's also very peaceful up here in the fresh air.

Jatiluwi Jatiluwi provides spectacular panoramic views of Bali rice terrace from the plateau area until the coastal side (west Bali). Jatiluwi is a favourite and must see tourist destination in Bali.

Tanah Lot Temple We'll end the tour at Tanah Lot, the picturesque offshore rocky Bali temple dating back to the 16th century. Tanah Lot has one of the most beautiful sunsets in Bali.

Sahaya Sawah
